Week 3 Review

Here's what you need to know.

A Quick Note

- Our weekly reviews will have the most important stats from Sunday, takeaways from three key games, positional leaderboards, and game boxes for the rest of the day, excluding Sunday Night Football.
- The data you see here comes from SumerSports' SumerPass. We recommend you check it out if you want to dive deeper into the data, build your own stats, or get live charting on game days.

The Sunday Stat Scroll

Here are some of our favorite stats from Sunday.

- Entering Sunday, teams were 2-119-1 when losing the turnover battle by four or more turnovers. They improved to 3-119-1 when the Bills beat the Chargers despite five turnovers in Week 3.
- The Pittsburgh Steelers produced 0.16 EPA/play on offense, which is their 9th best performance out of 71 regular season games since 2022.
- Jahmyr Gibbs forced seven missed tackles, had 85 out of 99 rush yards after contact, and had 0.38 targets per route run. All three of those numbers are over the 94th percentile respectively.
- The Browns had seven different players with at least three plus pressures including Mason Graham's seven pressures and two sacks.
- The Jaguars put up 35 points without attempting a pass over 20 yards down the field. That has happened just 18 times in the 649 games with a 35+ point scoring team.

- Geno Smith has his highest EPA/dropback through three weeks of any season in his career.
- Patrick Mahomes had his highest single game completion percentage since Week 15 of 2022.
- The Seattle Seahawks are now the only team to lose a game when clearing the 85th percentile in success rate on both sides of the ball since 2022.
- Brock Purdy has the highest EPA/play of any quarterback through the first three weeks of a season since 2016.
- The Jacksonville Jaguars are the only team in the top five in both offensive and defensive EPA/play through three weeks.
- Bengals right tackle Amarius Mims has still not let up a pressure this season.

Three Takeaways

Baltimore Ravens 34, Dallas Cowboys 31: The Ravens win at the last second. Literally.

- The Cowboys got the ball with 1:30 left in the game down by three. They marched down the field and had 1st and goal with 28 seconds left. Dallas ended up settling for a game tying field goal that left just seven seconds on the clock.
    - Instead of kicking the ball in play to melt precious seconds off the clock, the Cowboys opted for a kick through the back of the end zone. Lamar Jackson then completed a 27-yard pass in six seconds, took a time out, and Tyler Loop nailed a 56-yard game winner.
- The Ravens had a -18.3% pass rate over expected and averaged 5.6 yards per carry on early downs. On late downs, though, they had five rushes for just 0.2 yards per carry.
- Lamar Jackson was pressured on nine of his 22 dropbacks but took zero sacks. He was 3/3 for 58 yards and 0.97 EPA/dropback over the middle of the field. He was also 12/15 for 128 yards and an 80% success rate on short throws.
